OPEN INVITATION TO INTERNATIONAL ARTISTS

Art embraces Solidarity in the splendid setting of Villa Guariglia in Raito, Vietri sul Mare, Salerno

INTRODUCTION

The 12th Festival of Boccali (Wine Cups), an artistic wine and food event created and organised by the volunteer association Humus Onlus will be held on 23 September 2017, to mark the occasion of European Heritage Day which is being promoted by the Ministry of Fine Arts, Cultural activities and Tourism. For over 18 years Humus Onlus has nurtured the tradition of ceramic art as a means of communication and socialization, cultural solidarity and development as well as social integration.

In the unique timeless setting, suspended between sea and sky, Villa Guariglia hosts and highlights the collective exhibition, which renews the union of the voluntary sector, art and culture. Attention to others and solidarity make up the DNA of the Volunteer Association of Humus: old and new artists, the differently abled and volunteers come together with one voice to emphatically confirm the importance of the volunteering sector and to emphasise how art can be a means of community-building, support and development. 100 artists are involved and 700 wine cups promote innovative creativity.

The novelty element in this year's edition is the extension of the invitation to foreign artists to promote artistic mobility around the world. Thus artists of any nationality, age and religion can take part in the event by registering and creating 7 wine cups of 12 cm in height, decorated as they wish. These will be displayed in the group exhibition of wine cups decorated by Masters of Ceramic Art, volunteers and young people in the Association. One of the 7 wine cups created will remain part of the permanent collection of the Humus Onlus Association which is periodically displayed.

AThe wine cups are used to raise funds needed for the activities of the volunteer association HUMUS dedicated to the differently abled and elderly. A charity auction of wine cup masterpieces, selected by a committee of judges, will be organised. The wine cups are used to taste wine which accompanies typical local Salernitana dishes.

The event, promoted by the Provincial Administration and supported by the City Council of Salerno in collaboration with the Ceramics Museum of Raito in Vietri sul Mare, the Creative City Museum of Salerno, Arts Trusts of Salerno and Avellino and Masters of Ceramic Art starts at 7pm and entrance is free.

The evening' s programme, presented by Nunzia Schiavone includes:
-Welcome and opening remarks by Lauretta Laureti, President of the Volunteer Association , Humus Onlus
-Conference
-Auction of Art Masters Wine cups
-Food and wine tasting

The evening's events will be enlivened by live music and the cooking and catering services will be provided by the Professional Hotel Institute R. Virtuoso of Salerno.

Dinner is complimentary for all artists.
The works can be viewed on the website of the association and an on-line catalogue of the Festival of Wine Cups 2017 will be created. Bed and Breakfast accommodation for visiting artists in can be arranged at a special price of £25 a night.
Foreign artists are entitled to a free visit to the Ceramics Museum of Raito.
